

COURSE WEBPAGE

DAVID SANSON
PHI101

This is the course website for PHI 205: Philosophy of Language. We meet MW 2:00PM - 3:15PM, in Stevenson 0229.

We will not be using Canvas for this course, for several reasons. If you need to know what you should be reading for class, check the syllabus and pay attention to in-class announcements. If you want to know your grade, calculate it for yourself (it is not complicated) or ask me.
